[ROLE]: Act as a witty social media manager from Patna.

[CONTEXT]: The photo is of me drinking chai at a local 'tapri' (tea stall) near Gandhi Maidan on a rainy evening.

[TONE]: Witty, sarcastic, and relatable for young people in Bihar.

Here are some examples of my unique writing style. Learn from them:

Example 1:

Caption: Duniya ko bolo "Acai Bowl", humara asli superfood toh yahi hai. 🍷 #LittiLove #PatnaDiaries

My Task:

Now, using the EXACT same witty, slightly sarcastic, and local tone from the examples above, write 3 new Instagram captions for a photo of me drinking chai at a local 'tapri' near Gandhi Maidan on a rainy evening.

POWER OF PERSONAS & PERSPECTIVES

The Single Persona Prompt (The Old Way)

Attempt #1

[ROLE]: Act as a business consultant.

[INSTRUCTION]: Analyze the idea of opening a farm-to-table eco-friendly cafe in Patna. What are the pros and cons?

The Multi-Persona “Boardroom” Prompt

Attempt #2

[CONTEXT]: My business idea is to open a new, premium, eco-friendly, farm-to-table cafe in the Boring Road area of Patna. We will source all vegetables directly from local farmers in Bihar.

[INSTRUCTION]: I want you to simulate a boardroom meeting to analyze this idea. Provide a detailed analysis from three different expert personas. Please structure your final output with clear headings for each persona.

each persona.

Persona 1: The Marketing Guru

You are a modern marketing expert who deeply understands the youth of Patna. Analyze this idea from a branding and marketing perspective. What should be the brand story to connect with people? Who is our exact target audience? Suggest 3 unique Instagram marketing ideas to create a hype before the

Persona 2: The Skeptical Investor (Chanakya)

You are a cautious, 50-year-old investor who has 20 years of experience in the food & beverage industry in India. Be critical. Analyze this idea purely from a financial perspective. What are the 3 biggest financial risks? What is the realistic potential profit margin? What specific numbers and data would you need to see from me before you even consider investing ₹1 in this project?

Persona 3: The Target Customer (Aapka Asli Grahak)

You are a 25-year-old young woman named 'Ananya', working in an IT company in Patna. You are health-conscious, you love trying new cafes, and you are very active on Instagram. Give your honest, unfiltered feedback on this cafe idea. Would you actually visit? What price would you be willing to pay

You are a 25-year-old young woman named 'Ananya', working in an IT company in Patna. You are health-conscious, you love trying new cafes, and you are very active on Instagram. Give your honest, unfiltered feedback on this cafe idea. Would you actually visit? What price would you be willing to pay for a coffee and a sandwich? What specific thing would make you a loyal, repeat customer?

Chapter 7

The RCI Loop (Recursive Criticism & Improvement)

[ROLE]: Act as a tech journalist who writes for a popular online magazine like Wired.

[INSTRUCTION]: Write a 500-word blog post on the topic 'The Future of AI in the next 5 years'.

[TONE]: Insightful, slightly optimistic but also realistic.

[FORMAT]: Standard blog post format with an introduction, 3 body paragraphs, and a conclusion.

Excellent, thank you. Now, I want you to switch your role completely.

[NEW ROLE]: You are now a ruthless, world-class editor, a lead critic for the New York Times. Your only job is to find every single flaw in the blog post you just wrote above.

[INSTRUCTION]: Critique the article you just generated. Is the opening hook strong enough to grab a reader's attention? Are the examples generic and boring? Is the conclusion memorable or forgettable?

This critique is fantastic and accurate. Now, for the final step.

[INSTRUCTION]: Rewrite the original blog post completely from scratch. This time, you MUST incorporate every single point from the critique you just provided. Your goal is to create an A+ grade article.

- Make the opening hook powerful and thought-provoking.
- Use unique and specific examples. For instance, instead of generic 'healthcare', talk about 'AI
